

January 04, 2023

By signing up for the Patient Mentor Program ("the Program") offered by MEDIT, you ("the Mentor") agree to the following terms and conditions:

Role of the Mentor: As a Mentor, you will voluntarily participate in the Program and provide support and guidance to learning doctors ("the Participants"). Your role involves sharing your signs, symptoms, medical journey, experiences, and insights to help enhance the Participants' clinical skills and patient-centered approach.

Confidentiality: All information shared during the mentoring sessions, including personal medical details, must be treated with utmost confidentiality. The Mentor agrees not to disclose any sensitive information obtained during the Program.

Consent for Mentoring: The Mentor acknowledges and agrees that their participation in the Program is voluntary and can be terminated at any time without penalty. Likewise, the Mentor can refuse any mentoring request based on their comfort and availability.

Non-Medical Advice: The Mentor acknowledges that they are not providing medical advice or treatment during the mentoring sessions. The Program's focus is on sharing personal experiences and providing insights into the patient's perspective.

Professional Boundaries: The Mentor will maintain a professional relationship with the Participants and not engage in any inappropriate behavior or comments during the mentoring process.

Communication: The Mentor and Participants will communicate primarily through the designated channels provided by MEDIT. Any communication outside of these channels must be reported to MEDIT for record-keeping purposes.

Program Supervision: MEDIT will oversee the mentoring process and may review mentoring sessions for quality assurance and compliance with the terms and conditions.

Non-Disclosure: The Mentor agrees not to use any confidential information obtained during the Program for personal gain or disclose it to any third party without the explicit consent of MEDIT and the Participant.

Indemnity: The Mentor agrees to indemnify and hold MEDIT, its directors, officers, and employees harmless from any claims or liabilities arising from their participation in the Program.

Modification of Terms: MEDIT reserves the right to modify these terms and conditions at any time. Any significant changes will be communicated to the Mentor in advance.

By submitting the Mentor Application form, the Mentor confirms their understanding and acceptance of these terms and conditions and their willingness to participate in the Patient Mentor Program.

